

Swiggy Food Delivery Management System – SQL Practice Workbook

PART A – Beginner SQL (Questions 1–40)

Basic SQL Statements

1. Display all customer details.
2. Display Customer ID, Customer Name, and City.
3. Display customers from Chennai.
4. Display customers from Coimbatore.
5. Display the list of unique customer cities.
6. Display customers in alphabetical order.
7. Display customers in reverse alphabetical order.
8. Display the first 10 customer records.
9. Display the first five restaurants.
10. Display restaurants located in Bengaluru.

Filtering Records

11. Display all menu items.
12. Display only vegetarian menu items.
13. Display only non-vegetarian menu items.
14. Display menu items costing more than ₹300.
15. Display menu items costing less than ₹200.
16. Display menu items priced between ₹200 and ₹400.
17. Display the ten most expensive menu items.
18. Display the ten least expensive menu items.
19. Display customers whose names begin with the letter 'A'.
20. Display customers whose names end with "Kumar".

Pattern Matching & Conditions

21. Display menu items containing the word "Chicken".
22. Display customers from Chennai, Coimbatore, and Madurai.
23. Display customers who are not from Chennai.
24. Display deliveries where the delivery rating is not available.
25. Display deliveries that have received ratings.

Orders, Payments & Reviews

- 26. Display all orders.
 - 27. Display delivered orders.
 - 28. Display cancelled orders.
 - 29. Display pending orders.
 - 30. Display completed payments.
 - 31. Display failed payments.
 - 32. Display refunded payments.
 - 33. Display the ten highest payment amounts.
 - 34. Display the ten lowest payment amounts.
 - 35. Display all five-star reviews.
 - 36. Display reviews with ratings less than three.
 - 37. Display customer names using the alias "Customer".
 - 38. Display menu item names using the alias "Food Item".
 - 39. Display menu prices after adding a 5% service charge.
 - 40. Display the latest ten registered customers.
-

PART B – Aggregate Functions (Questions 41–60)

41. Display the total number of registered customers.
42. Display the total number of restaurants.
43. Display the total number of customer orders.
44. Display the total number of completed payments.
45. Display the total revenue generated through completed payments.
46. Display the average order amount.
47. Display the highest order amount.
48. Display the lowest order amount.
49. Display the average customer review rating.
50. Display the average review rating rounded to two decimal places.
51. Display the number of customers in each city.
52. Display the number of restaurants in each city.
53. Display the total revenue generated by each payment method.
54. Display the number of transactions for each payment method.
55. Display the number of reviews for each rating.
56. Display the number of menu items in each food category.
57. Display cities having more than five registered customers.

- 58. Display payment methods generating revenue greater than ₹20,000.
 - 59. Display the average menu price for each food category.
 - 60. Display payment-method-wise transaction count, total revenue, average payment, highest payment, and lowest payment.
-

PART C – JOIN Queries (Questions 61–90)

- 61. Display customer name, order ID, order date, and total amount.
- 62. Display order ID, restaurant name, order date, and order amount.
- 63. Display menu item name, category name, and price.
- 64. Display order ID, payment amount, payment method, and payment status.
- 65. Display order ID, delivery partner name, and delivery status.
- 66. Display customer name, review rating, and review comment.
- 67. Display restaurant name, review rating, and review comment.
- 68. Display restaurant name, menu item, and menu price.
- 69. Display all customers along with their orders, including customers who have not placed any orders.
- 70. Display all restaurants along with their menu items.
- 71. Display all orders with their payment details, including unpaid orders.
- 72. Display all orders with delivery information, including undelivered orders.
- 73. Display all restaurants along with their customer reviews.

74. Display all menu categories along with their menu items.
 75. Display all payment records with their corresponding orders.
 76. Display all reviews with restaurant details.
 77. Display all delivery records with delivery partner details.
 78. Display customer name, restaurant name, order amount, and payment status.
 79. Display customer name, restaurant name, delivery partner name, and delivery status.
 80. Display customer name, restaurant name, payment amount, payment method, and review rating.
 81. Display each customer's total number of orders.
 82. Display each restaurant's total number of orders received.
 83. Display the total revenue generated by each restaurant.
 84. Display the average customer rating for each restaurant.
 85. Display the total number of deliveries handled by each delivery partner.
 86. Display the total payment collected through each payment method.
 87. Display customers along with the restaurants they reviewed.
 88. Display restaurant name, city, and average menu price.
 89. Display each food category with the number of menu items.
 90. Prepare a consolidated order report containing customer, restaurant, payment, and delivery details.
-

PART D – Date Functions (Questions 91–120)

- 91. Display the current system date.
- 92. Display the current system time.
- 93. Display the current date and time.
- 94. Display the system timestamp.
- 95. Display today's date using the CURRENT_DATE() function.
- 96. Display the current timestamp using CURRENT_TIMESTAMP().
- 97. Display the order year for every order.
- 98. Display the order month for every order.
- 99. Display the month name for every order.
- 100. Display the day of the month for every order.
- 101. Display the weekday name for every order.
- 102. Display the weekday number for every order.
- 103. Display the week number for every order.
- 104. Display the quarter for every order.
- 105. Display the day number within the year for every order.
- 106. Calculate the number of days between the order date and delivery date.
- 107. Calculate the delivery duration in minutes.

108. Display the expected delivery date by adding two days to the order date.
 109. Display a reminder date three days before the order date.
 110. Add seven days to each order date.
 111. Subtract five days from each order date.
 112. Display all orders placed during the last thirty days.
 113. Display the order date in DD-MM-YYYY format.
 114. Display the order month and year in "Month YYYY" format.
 115. Display monthly revenue generated from completed payments.
 116. Display the daily order count.
 117. Display the total number of orders placed each month.
 118. Display the total number of orders placed on each weekday.
 119. Display the average delivery time in minutes.
 120. Prepare a monthly business summary showing total orders, revenue, and average order value.
-

PART E – Advanced SQL (Questions 121–150)

121. Display all customers with a row number based on their total spending.
122. Rank restaurants according to total revenue.
123. Assign a dense rank to customers based on lifetime spending.
124. Divide customers into four spending groups using NTILE().
125. Display each payment along with the previous payment amount.
126. Display each payment along with the next payment amount.
127. Calculate the running total of completed payments.
128. Calculate the moving average of payment amounts.
129. Using a Common Table Expression (CTE), display restaurants with revenue greater than ₹20,000.
130. Using a Common Table Expression (CTE), display customer-wise total spending.
131. Display customers whose total spending is greater than the average customer spending.
132. Display orders whose value is greater than the average order value of the same restaurant.
133. Categorize orders as Low, Medium, or High value using the CASE statement.
134. Display the total number of completed, pending, failed, and refunded payments using conditional aggregation.
135. Display customers who have placed at least one order.
136. Display customers who have never placed any order.
137. Display the top five restaurants based on revenue.

138. Display the top ten customers based on lifetime spending.
139. Display restaurants having an average customer rating greater than 4.5.
140. Calculate the Customer Lifetime Value (CLV) for every customer.
141. Display monthly revenue generated through completed payments.
142. Display the total number of orders placed during each hour of the day.
143. Display the average delivery time for each delivery partner.
144. Identify the delivery partner with the lowest average delivery time.
145. Rank payment methods based on completed transactions.
146. Display each restaurant's revenue along with its percentage contribution to total revenue.
147. Display customers who have placed more than five orders.
148. Display customers who have ordered from more than one restaurant.
149. Prepare a KPI dashboard showing total customers, restaurants, orders, completed payments, and reviews.
150. Prepare an executive business report showing restaurant name, total orders, total revenue, average customer rating, and average delivery time.